

Mayor Satya is Building a Better Madison

Mayor Satya Rhodes-Conway brought Madison together to overcome the challenges of the pandemic and anti-democratic extremists in the state legislature, while continuing to work on the issues that matter most to Madisonians.

Mayor Satya's strong progressive leadership has helped build a resilient community with more affordable housing and a strong, equitable economy – all while keeping our neighborhoods safe and protecting our democracy.

There is a lot more to do, but by staying true to our progressive values, we are building a stronger, safer, and more sustainable Madison.

Protecting Voting Rights to Strengthen Our Democracy

Standing up to extreme partisans who continue to attack our democracy, and fighting to keep voting easy and accessible for every eligible resident. Investing in our election clerks and protecting them from threats or efforts to obstruct their work.

Supporting a Strong, Equitable Economy for Everyone

Helping local businesses navigate pandemic recovery, and advancing equity through targeted grants, training, ownership opportunities, local purchasing, and a proposed $115 million investment in South Madison. Creating the state's first Guaranteed Income pilot for Madison's most vulnerable residents.

Focusing on Public Safety so People Feel Safe in Their Neighborhoods

Supporting a data-driven approach to public safety that reduced shots fired incidents by 21%. Launching a groundbreaking mobile response program for behavioral health emergencies. Initiating a nationally-recognized Vision Zero project to improve traffic safety.
