

Achoo! Oh no, I have a cold.

Mother sighed, "No school for you or work for me. We will both stay home."

Mother gave me my old fuzzy friend Elmo to hold.

My nose is red from my cold.

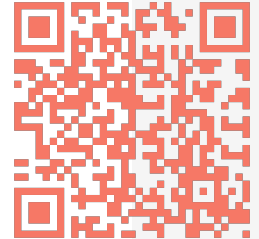

I am both happy and sad to be home.

I look at my old books but I am bored.

This cold makes me sleepy.

I miss both school and my friends.

Being sick gets old fast.
